

MLA Format, Reflection, and Typing Reminders

1. Read Mrs. Barker's comments and fix any errors
2. Check your writing goal (on the back of your rubric.) If you did not complete it, do it now.
3. Do a final check of no excuses
4. Make sure your paper is double spaced
5. Font is 12 pt. (except for title)
6. MLA heading: (upper right corner - do not insert it as a header)

Sally Student

Mrs. Barker

4th Hour English

15, December 2016

4. Make sure that you have at least one sentence pattern highlighted in each paragraph.

5. You should have at least four pieces of author's craft underlined

(dialogue and sentence patterns do not count for this)

6. Complete your reflection using your rubric as a guide. Your reflection should be on the same page as your paper -if there is room Title it "Reflection."

Write at least one paragraph. Choose three pieces of author's craft. Do the following for each:

- a. name the type of author's craft and give an example
- b. tell why you used it and HOW it made your paper better

You will be graded on no excuses in your reflection!

7. When you are finished with all of the above, get the okay from your teacher to print. Print to room 230.
8. After printing, staple your paper - only if more than one page.

Turn your rubric in with your paper. Make sure your name is on

it. Do NOT staple it to your paper.

9. RELAX and read quietly :)
